

Little Slugger Rules

- Every player on the team plays in the field. In the infield, there can be up to six players (1st, 2nd, 3rd, shortstop, and two pitchers.) The rest of the players must play in the outfield.
- Each player must rotate a position every inning.
- During each at bat, everyone on the team bats through the order. No matter if there is 3 outs or not. The batter must hit the ball past the foul circle. The last batter of the inning must be announced. The batter will take only one base at a time.
- There will not be any umpires at the games. The players will not be called out, and will get to keep their base.
- The games have an hour time limit or four innings. Please remember there will games immediately afterwards. The home team must bat to end the game.
- Each coach is responsible for his/her team on and off the field. Do not let the kids wonder off or climb on benches or fences.
- Assistant coaches are welcome on the playing field. One coach is allowed between first and second base, one is allowed in between second and third base, and one at home plate.
