FUN UNDER THE SUN

2016 Summer Camp Registration Packet
Carl & Linda Grubb Family YMCA
Never heard of FUNtropolis? It’s the place where kids go to explore. It’s the place where creativity shines. It’s the place where having fun is the law. No GPS or road maps needed because FUNtropolis can be found as long as you have a creative mind, energetic spirit, and an open heart. “Summer FUN Lives Here” and your child will enjoy his or her summer break and one that they will treasure for years to come.

FUNtropolis is housed at the Carl & Linda Grubb Family YMCA and operates for 11 weeks out of the summer (June-August). FUNtropolis is open to rising Kindergartners to rising 8th graders. Students can enter the city limits of FUNtropolis starting at 7:30am and exit at least by 6:00pm. FUNtropolis citizens are encouraged to bring a morning snack, and must bring in their own bagged lunch. Each afternoon, campers will be provided with an afternoon snack to give them enough energy to finish out an active day. FUNtropolis is a Toy-Free city (with the exception of designated Toy Days); therefore electronics, game cards, Barbie dolls, action figures, etc. must remain outside the city limits. There will be games and supplies which all citizens can share together.

So what activities actually take place in this Ultimate Summerrcation Destination? The answer: Plenty! Every Tuesday & Thursday FUNtropolis citizens will take a trip to the Hartley Drive Family YMCA to take a dip in the pool. Every Wednesday campers will leave the Y on Field Trips that will traverse Greensboro, High Point, and even Charlotte. Each week will also feature a theme which daily activities, games, and trips will center around. We will also hold Spirit Days where FUNtropolis Citizens will be encouraged to dress up and show off their spirit (e.g. Sports Day, Hat Day, Wacky Tacky Day, etc.). Campers will also be engaged in daily crafts and active games, as well as weekly Special Events to put a special finish to the week.

So what are you waiting for? Make your child a FUNtropolis Citizen TODAY! This will be the place that your child will want to make their home. Register at the Grubb Family YMCA front desk or online to start the process. NYC may be the city that never sleeps, but FUNtropolis is the camp where the FUN never stops! Leave your child’s SUMMERcation to us!
CAMP FUNTROPOLIS THEMES

Week 1: Funville, USA
June 13-17
Sunny skies, hot temperatures, and a lot of energy are the ingredients to have a Fun time in the summer! School is OUT, Summer is IN, and it’s time to have a good time. This week will be dedicated to all the things that make summer what it is. We will do crafts and focus our games around Summer activities with themes of the beach, dancing, and cool summer treats. This week’s planned trip is to Chuck E. Cheese’s, the ultimate location for fun. Join us and let your hair blow in the breeze as we enjoy all that summer has to offer.

Week 2: Are We There Yet?
June 20-24
This is the week that we answer the age old question of travel: Are We There Yet? And our answer is… not yet! There’s so much to see and do on this week of travel and transportation. From planes to trains to boats and floats we are focusing our attention on things on the move. Our planned featured field trip will be a trip to the NC Transportation Museum in Spencer. Campers will be able to take in all the sights and sounds from various modes of transportation from 1800s to modern day. By the end of the week we will have reached our goal of being transportation experts, and on a engine full of fun. Come along for an incredible voyage.

Week 3: Going Wild
June 27-July 1
While Dorothy may be worried about Lions, Tigers, and Bears, we will be embracing these animals and many more. We are bridging mankind and the animal kingdom for a week of exciting activities that spotlight the cutest, busiest, and most intriguing animals around. Kids will learn about different animals and get opportunities to do crafts of their favorite jungle friends and games that will get them moving around like the kings and queens of the jungle. We plan to take a trip to the North Carolina Zoo. Join us as we swing from the tree tops in an enjoyable adventure into the wild!

Week 4: Defy Gravity
July 4-8
Feel like traveling? Why limit ourselves to only travel here on Earth, when we can travel far, far, beyond? While we won’t be gassing up the space shuttle for this week, we will be fueling our minds for a grand space voyage. We plan to engage your child in games and crafts that will explore aspects of space such as our marvelous planets, shining stars, and Martian creatures. The planned field trip for the week will be us traveling to Air Fun. We’ll the weightlessness feeling that astronauts feel as bounce from one trampoline to the other. Don’t let your child miss out on this incredible space odyssey, as we travel to new ninth planet: The planet of Fun!

Week 5: Rewind
July 11-15
What would life be without looking back, if not at least for a second! This week will be dedicated to looking at our past, while also looking ahead to see how our skills and talents can help us leave our legacy and mark on the world. We will engage in crafts and games that take us back to different eras in history. We will also look at our own families and ourselves, so that kids will be able to express what makes them so special. We plan to journey to the Old Salem to look at artifacts and gain insight into the history of this historic town and the surrounding areas. We will also have an awesome magician who will come in to wow the campers with some magic! So don’t miss this opportunity to remember history, while making history in this epic week of fun!

Week 6: The Imaginarium
July 18-22
Where would your mind take you, if there were no boundary or limits? The place where the sky is not the limit, but the starting line. Let your kids’ imagination run wild during this week where we will explore a world of fantasy and wonder. We will do crafts and games that have mythical themes and even a touch of magic for your child to enjoy. This week we will take a field trip to a Keeley Park in Greensboro to have fun at their splash pad and enjoy the great outdoors. We also plan to host a magician would we deliver an exciting and spell bounding performance, filled with creating the unbelievable. Creativity should not be tamed or caged, so have your child join us on a week where their dreams can come to life!
Week 7: Dive In
July 25-29
What better way to celebrate summer then to dive right in, literally! Summer is here and what would it be without our most precious resource: water? This week will focus not just on having fun, but having WET fun! We will feature games and activities that involve water, as well as crafts that focus on this vital element. The planned featured field trip will be a trip to High Point City Lake Pool! So, as the temperatures rise outside join us so your child can cool off!

Week 8: Grand Slam
August 1-5
They say that America’s favorite pastime is baseball. The fun and excitement of pitching, batting, stealing bases is all part of the great experience of the game. On this week we do crafts and activities that will feature baseball, as well as a mixture of other fun sports such as basketball, kickball, and ultimate. It is also an opportunity to focus on fitness and staying active. Our field trip will consist of a fun trip to see the Greensboro Grasshoppers in action in downtown Greensboro ballpark. Don’t let your child miss out on a week that will knock fun out of the park!

Week 9: On The Look Out
August 8-13
Where will your summer adventure take you? Will you take a trip to outer space? Will you navigate the on the high seas? Or will you journey to the Amazon and experience all it has to offer? There are so many places to see and explore. There are so many things to learn and discover. During this week we will engage in games and activities that promote discovery, a journey that starts with you! We will travel to Discovery Place, in Charlotte, to take part in fun exploration and learn about all walks of science. Join us and let your child’s discovery take off!

Week 10: The Great Outdoors
August 15-19
As we advance more in the age of technology, we have sometimes forgotten what it is like to to get outside and enjoy the air, the trees, and the sunshine. There’s nothing like breathing in the fresh air as you play fun and exciting games to keep you healthy and active. We will do crafts and activities that bring out the best of being outside and taking in nature. Campers will take an exciting trip to Kersey Valley in Archdale. This is an outdoor adventure that will feature gem mining, a large jumping pillow, and an incredible live bee exhibit. Get out the house and come join us for an outdoor escape!

Week 11: The Premier
August 22-26
Not quite ready for the closing credits to your summer experience? Neither are we! Even though this will be the last week of camp, we will not allow it to be short on fun. The show is still going on and it is starring your child and his or her friends. This week will have a cinematic and theatrical theme, where campers will do skits, crafts, and activities that allow them to be creative and expressive. We will be planning to travel to the Carmike Movie Theater, in High Point, to catch a cool summer movie as the action plays out on the big screen. Join us and let your child put his or her star on the Summer Walk of Fame!
